Dear Mayank

I am pleased to confirm that your appointment as an Official Travel Agent for the ICC Champions Trophy 2008 has been approved by ICC Development (International) Ltd ("IDI").

You can now call yourself 'Official Travel Agent for the ICC Champions Trophy 2008' and use the logo of the event.

Your territory is: INDIA

Attached you will find

- The match schedule.
- Artwork approval form

Please indicate how many match tickets you would like us to hold on your behalf for all the games you are interested in. It is not something that you will be obliged to take – nor that we can necessarily provide. Precise numbers are required later and once ordered match tickets have to be paid for immediately.

Don't forget that all publicity material must be approved by IDI before publication or going live. This includes letterheads, business cards and anything which uses the event marks and logo. Please forward all examples to me at shirley@cricketlogistics.com I will then forward it to IDI for clearance. All artwork must be accompanied by an approval form.

At all times, please remember all the conditions to which you have now signed up. And lastly, good luck with all your sales for the ICC Champions Trophy 2008.

Yours sincerely

Shirley Rattray
